5. Please assess the applicant's potential for a career in biomedical research and share any observations and inferences that would be useful in predicting this applicant's potential to become a biomedical researcher. For example, your comments may include your assessment of some of the following attributes: scientific aptitude, creativity, curiosity, initiative, work habits, and peer relationships.

6. The UGSP scholars will be required to fulfill two service obligations: (1) During the academic year of scholarship receipt, the UGSP scholars will be required to work as NIH employees in the NIH research laboratories for 10 consecutive weeks during the months of June, July, and August. (2) Upon graduation (unless a deferment is granted by the UGSP) scholars are required to begin their service obligation. UGSP scholars incur 1 year of obligated service for each full or partial year of support and are obligated to serve as full-time NIH employees in an NIH research laboratory to fulfill this service obligation. (The maximum service obligation is 4 years.)

Do you have any reason to believe that the applicant may NOT satisfy either of these service requirements? If so, please explain.
